9:15-10:00 What's New: Legislative Changes and Corresponding Caselaw | Regency ABC

Over the past two and a half years, we have not only seen changes to the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (the "CCAA") and the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (the "BIA") but also changes to the procedures that we traditionally followed in restructuring cases. What exactly were those changes, have they led to more access to justice and accountability, or have they introduced uncertainty with unintended consequences? Hear from our panel of expert legal and accounting professionals as they identify and assess some interesting changes in the way we navigate restructuring proceedings in Canada.

Speakers: Carole J. Hunter, Counsel, DLA Piper (Toronto, ON)
Stephen Ferguson, Managing Director, Alvarez & Marsal Canada (Toronto, ON)
Gregory R. Azeff, Partner, Miller Thomson LLP (Toronto, ON)
Lisa Hiebert, Partner, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (Vancouver, BC)

Moderator: Ian Aversa, Partner, Aird & Berlis LLP (Toronto, ON)

10:00-10:45 Insolvency Professionals Need Closure: Real Estate Security and Enforcement | Regency ABC

With a potential real estate downturn on the horizon, it is more important than ever that lenders and borrowers consider the implications and methods of enforcing real estate security. Make sure that you are fully prepared for the issues that arise when dealing with real estate security, including how to value, protect and enforce.
